DAY 3— Meet Jesus When He Surprises Us

Acts 1:9-11

Time Alone with God

Prayer

Explore the Word

1. Read John 14:1–3. What is Jesus personally preparing before He returns?
2. Read Acts 1:9–11. How will Jesus return?

Insights from Ellen White:

When the time came for Christ to ascend to His Father, He led the disciples out as far as Bethany. Here He paused, and they gathered about Him. With hands outstretched in blessing, as if in assurance of His protecting care, He slowly ascended from among them. “It came to pass, while He blessed them, He was parted from them, and carried up into heaven.” Luke 24:51.

(The Acts of the Apostles, p. 32)

While the disciples were gazing upward to catch the last glimpse of their ascending Lord, He was received into the rejoicing ranks of heavenly angels. As these angels escorted Him to the courts above, they sang in triumph, “Sing unto God, ye kingdoms of the earth; O sing praises unto the Lord, to Him that rideth upon the heavens of heavens. . . . Ascribe ye strength unto God: His excellency is over Israel, and His strength is in the heavens.” Psalm 68:32–34, margin. (The Acts of the Apostles, pp. 32, 33)

Prayer for the Holy Spirit

Explore the Word

1. Read Matthew 24:42–44. How will Jesus' second coming be like a thief?
2. How may we best prepare for Jesus to return?

Insights from Ellen White:

The promise of Christ's second coming was ever to be kept fresh in the minds of His disciples. The same Jesus whom they had seen ascending into heaven, would come again, to take to Himself those who here below give themselves to His service. The same voice that had said to them, "Lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end," would bid them welcome to His presence in the heavenly kingdom. (The Acts of the Apostles, p. 33)

Prayer Focus

Pray together that the Holy Spirit will prepare each person in your circle to meet Jesus when He returns.

Worship in Word

(SMALL GROUPS)

1. Read 1 Thessalonians 4:16–18. What is it that will make Jesus' coming the best day on this planet?
2. Read Matthew 25:1–13. What can we learn from this parable about preparing for Jesus' soon coming?

Insights from Ellen White:

After the Saviour's ascension, the sense of the divine presence, full of love and light, was still with them. It was a personal presence. Jesus, the Saviour, who had walked and talked and prayed with them, who had spoken hope and comfort to their hearts, had, while the message of peace was upon His lips, been taken from them into heaven. As the chariot of angels received Him, His words had come to them, "Lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end." Matthew 28:20. He had ascended to heaven in the form of humanity. They knew that He was before the throne of God, their Friend and Saviour still; that His sympathies were unchanged; that He would forever be identified with suffering humanity. They knew that He was presenting before God the merit of His blood, showing His wounded hands and feet as a remembrance of the price He had paid for His redeemed ones; and this thought strengthened them to endure reproach for His sake. Their union with Him was stronger now than when He was with them in person. The light and love and power of an indwelling Christ shone out through them, so that men, beholding, marveled. (The Acts of the Apostles, p. 65)

Prayer Focus

Pray together for God to give us urgency in preparing to meet Jesus face to face at His second coming.
