Sabbath School Overview

What is Sabbath School?

Sabbath School is a weekly, Bible-based study and fellowship program held on Saturday mornings in Seventh-day Adventist churches. Classes are interactive and open to all ages, focusing on spiritual growth, community building, and mission outreach.

Key Elements

- Weekly Bible study and discussion
- Age-group classes
- Community fellowship
- Emphasis on service and mission

What is a Sabbath School Quarterly?

A Sabbath School Quarterly is a guide containing three months of daily lessons. Each week, a teacher leads a discussion based on the lesson, helping participants explore theological topics or books of the Bible together.

How do you Receive a Quarterly?

Quarterlies are distributed in March, June, September, and December or you can visit www.ssnet.org.

Offerings

Your offerings collected during the class are used to pay for Sabbath School Quarterlies.
